

Thompson Innovative Glass selected as winner of the Early Adopter Award by Guardian Glass

Fenton, MI, March 21, 2024 - Thompson Innovative Glass was recently recognized as the winner of the first Early Adopter Award at the Guardian Glass Commercial Projects Awards.

This annual event, held in Nashville during the NGA's BEC Conference, celebrates excellence and innovation in the architectural glass industry. Being named an Early Adopter is a true testament to Thompson Innovative Glass' commitment to staying at the forefront of glass technology and offering their customers the most advanced solutions.

"We're thrilled to again be recognized by Guardian Glass and the panel of judges for another of our projects," said Tom Donovan, President and CEO of Thompson Innovative Glass. "The Godfrey Hotel was a true team effort, and we were fortunate to collaborate with exceptional professionals to make it happen."
