

No price increases at Thompson through enhanced efficiency

Fenton, MI, September 10, 2024 - At Thompson Innovative Glass, creativity, innovation, and growth are at the heart of who we are and what we do. It's all part of our commitment to supporting our loyal customers and partners.

While our industry is facing price hikes from major glass suppliers and fabricators, we're taking a different approach. We're proud to announce that Thompson Innovative Glass will NOT be increasing its prices at this time. Instead of following the trend, we have focused on enhancing our operational efficiency and optimizing our processes. This allows us to pass the cost savings directly on to you.

In addition, we're excited to introduce the upcoming launch of our new advanced lamination division. This new venture will expand our capabilities, offering cutting-edge solutions to meet your evolving needs and support shorter lead times. Stay tuned for more details on the innovative options coming your way!

We're excited about these developments and remain dedicated to serving you with excellence and innovation. Thank you for your continued trust and partnership!
